Dear Gangaji, Thank you so much for being part of my life!! And thank you so very much for continuing your work to help us see Reality. I just would like to take this opportunity to say once again I love you. At the central core of my being is a deep love and appreciation for you and Eli. Actually, more correctly, at the core of me, is the core of you. This fact is so very lovely! Once again, there is nothing to say, the silence is just about taking care of everything these days. Of course there is the old struggle to drop it and struggle about this or that, but I'm getting pretty darn good at not going there. I suppose that a good way to say it is that now, struggle is the thing that comes up occasionally. Where I live is the silent knowing, and I travel to struggle. It's quite nice. Thank you so very much for being my inspiration and my guide on this path! So very much love, Garth McMurtrey
